Discover the New and the Old In GALILEO
www.galileo.usg.edu

"Announcing Discover GALILEO, a new way to search and retrieve content from GALILEO's hundred+ databases.

Discover GALILEO provides a single search of all its resources combining the ease and speed of a popular Internet search engine with the quality and organization of content that only a library can provide. Powered by EBSCO Discovery Service, Discover GALILEO offers a comprehensive set of research tools, including a personal research folder that allows users to easily save, cite, retrieve and link to content. Interested in History?

Have You Visited the DLG?

A special feature of GALILEO is the Digital Library of Georgia. Its focus is on Georgia history through collections of original documents.

If you have never checked it out, these are some of the things you are missing:

- ◆ Film of the 1936 Gainesville Tornado Disaster
- ◆ America's Turning Point:
- ◆ Documenting the Civil War Experience in Georgia
- ◆ Carnegie Family Collection (scrapbooks including descriptions of life on Cumberland Island)

Many collections of photographs, land deeds, local newspapers, maps, etc., provide a real life perspective on Georgia history.

Ebooks: Who, What, Where, When and Why?

You are the WHO. Books you can read on a computer are the WHAT. Reading online wherever you have internet access is the WHERE. Accessibility 24/7 is the WHEN. WHY is the need for you to be informed!

Your Library provides access to numerous online ebook collections such as Ebooks on EBSCOHOST and the Gale Virtual Library. Links to these are available on the Library webpage.

The next time you need reliable information and it's midnight, or you can't get to the library because the kids are sick, try the online library available to you at www.northgatech.edu/library.

Recent Additions to your Campus Libraries!

PERIODICALS (BETTER KNOWN AS MAGAZINES)

Stop by your campus library and read a magazine or newspaper.

All of the libraries have a selection of magazines relating to instructional programs, but also titles to look at just for fun or to catch up on your special interests.

From the ever popular People to Sports Illustrated, Glamour, Consumer Reports and O the OPRAH Magazine there is something for everyone. So have a seat and relax with a good article at your campus library!
